

Name_____

Period_____

BDOTE

Watch “Mato Nunpa – THE Bdote”

1. What does Bdote mean?
2. What does THE Bdote refer to?
3. What significance does this area have to the Dakota Oyate?

Watch “Dave Larsen – Bdote and Much More”

4. What does Dave Larsen call white people? What does it feel like to have someone make up a name to call you?
5. Why does he think that white people chose to settle here?
6. Who should make the decision about what should happen to Fort Snelling? Do you agree with this? Why or why not?

Watch “Youth Video Poem about this area as a whole”

7. The youth video poem answered some of the following questions, now it is your turn. What groups do you represent? What do you stand for? What do you believe in? (Optional – create your own video poem about these things.)

Watch “Youth video piece – Bdote”

8. What story is this telling? How can you tell? (Optional – create a slideshow that tells a story.)

Listen to “Sisokaduta talks of the bdote area”

9. Where was he born? When did he move to Minnesota?

10. What is the difference between where you are from and where you consider home? Where were you born? Where do you consider home?

Listen to “Shared advice from Joe Campbell of Prairie Island”

11. Joe Campbell’s advice is: 1. If you know who you are, you are somebody and 2. Know where you are, if you don’t – you are lost. On the surface these are quite simple, but they can also have deeper meaning. How could “know where you are” mean more than just a physical location?

Look at “Drawing of Ft. Snelling map in the 1820s-1830s”

12. What features are on this map?

13. Where are the fort and the fur companies in relation to the Dakota Villages? Do you think this is related to Dave Larsen’s idea (question 5)?

Visit MinnesotaHistory.net. Choose one article and answer the following questions:

14. Who wrote the article and when (author, date)?

15. What is the main point or purpose of the article?

16. List at least three facts from the article.

17. List two examples of author commentary or opinion.

18. Do you agree or disagree with the author? Why or why not?

Visit Mendota Mdewakanton Dakota Community website.

19. List and explain five things on the site and why they would be important for the community.

Name _____

Period _____

BDOTE – ANSWER KEY

Watch “Mato Nunpa – THE Bdote”

1. What does Bdote mean?

Where two waters come together, a confluence.

2. What does THE Bdote refer to?

Specifically the confluence of the Minnesota and Mississippi rivers.

3. What significance does this area have to the Dakota Oyate?

This is considered the center of the earth and the place where the Mdewakanton Dakota people originate.

Watch “Dave Larsen – Bdote and Much More”

4. What does Dave Larsen call white people? What does it feel like to have someone make up a name to call you?

Pigmentally Challenged. Answers may vary.

5. Why does he think that white people chose to settle here?

Because it had the most meaning to the Dakota – if you want to hurt them, take a way the place with the most meaning.

6. Who should make the decision about what should happen to Fort Snelling? Do you agree with this? Why or why not?

Elders and people who can discuss without getting passionate. Answers may vary.

Watch “Youth Video Poem about this area as a whole”

7. The youth video poem answered some of the following questions, now it is your turn. What groups do you represent? What do you stand for? What do you believe in? (Optional – create your own video poem about these things.)

Answers may vary.

Watch “Youth video piece – Bdote”

8. What story is this telling? How can you tell? (Optional – create a slideshow that tells a story.)

Answers may vary.

Listen to “Sisokaduta talks of the bdote area”

9. Where was he born? When did he move to Minnesota?

South Dakota (Sisseton Reservation), when he was 4.

10. What is the difference between where you are from and where you consider home? Where were you born? Where do you consider home?

Answers may vary.

Listen to “Shared advice from Joe Campbell of Prairie Island”

11. Joe Campbell’s advice is: 1. If you know who you are, you are somebody and 2. Know where you are, if you don’t – you are lost. On the surface these are quite simple, but they can also have deeper meaning. How could “know where you are” mean more than just a physical location?

Answers may vary

Look at “Drawing of Ft. Snelling map in the 1820s-1830s”

12. What features are on this map?

Falls, island, river, lakes, villages, posts, fort, trails.

13. Where are the fort and the fur companies in relation to the Dakota Villages? Do you think this is related to Dave Larsen’s idea (question 5)?

Right in the middle. Answers may vary.

Visit MinnesotaHistory.net. Choose one article and answer the following questions:

14. Who wrote the article and when (author, date)?

15. What is the main point or purpose of the article?

16. List at least three facts from the article.

17. List two examples of author commentary or opinion.

18. Do you agree or disagree with the author? Why or why not?

Visit Mendota Mdewakanton Dakota Community website.

19. List and explain five things on the site and why they would be important for the community.

Answers may vary.