2020 Veterans' Voices Award Submissions Now Open Minnesota Humanities Center Calls for Veterans' Stories

For Immediate Release

April 16, 2020—ST. PAUL, Minn.— The Minnesota Humanities Center (MHC) is pleased to announce that submissions for their 2020 Veterans' Voices Award are now being accepted and can be easily submitted online. Selected works will be honored at an award ceremony on Saturday, October 10, 2020 at The Wilder Center in St. Paul.

MHC invites Veterans living in Minnesota to submit poetry, prose, essays, and memoirs for consideration. Submissions will be accepted through July 31, 2020 and should focus on one (or more) of the eight topics that frame the Veterans' Voices program: Combat & Non-Combat, Duty, Family, Motivation, Perceptions, Reintegration, Service, and Transformation. An independent panel will review submitted writings and make award recommendations for up to 10 Veteran writers to the Humanities Center.

"This is a great time for Veterans to share their stories of overcoming adversity to empower other Veterans and Minnesotans around the state," said Blake Rondeau, Veterans' Voices Program Officer. "Sharing personal experiences can be an incredibly empowering part of the healing process for Veterans. It's also powerful for audience members who leave the ceremony with a greater sense of understanding and empathy for these experiences."

Prior to submitting written work, the Humanities Center encourages Veterans to attend one of four free Warrior Writers Workshops now offered online and around greater Minnesota on April 23, May 7, June 4, and July 9, 2020. Workshops offer a safe place for Veterans to write about their experiences using prompts and discussion. Attendance at a workshop is encouraged, but not mandatory, and it will not influence the selection process.

"This year we are fully embracing the idea of improvising, adapting, and overcoming as we launch virtual experiences for our Veterans to participate in our Warrior Writers Workshops," said Kevin Lindsey, CEO of the Minnesota Humanities Center. "Seeing the writing that is occurring as we shelter in place has MHC very excited about the great stories that we are going to hear at our Veterans Voices Award Ceremony in October."

About the Minnesota Humanities Center

The Humanities Center connects our past, present, and future by bringing people together to increase understanding and spark change. Using story as a catalyst and the humanities to explore the question of what it means to be human, MHC seeks to create a just society that is curious, connected, and compassionate. MHC, founded in 1971, is a statewide nonprofit organization affiliated with and supported by the National Endowment for the Humanities. MHC operates a full-service Event Center in a historic building on St. Paul's East Side. More information available at mnhum.org.
