

MINNESOTA HUMANITIES CENTER

Learning from Place Bdote Private Trips

The Minnesota Humanities Center is pleased to offer a limited number of private Bdote trips from late April through mid-October for groups that are seeking an experience to enhance their work by learning from those who have the longest history to this land, the Dakota people.

Watch a short video on the impact of Learning from Place: Bdote and what you can expect from the experience. Please complete our intake form so we can assess your group's interest and alignment with MHC's program goals.

The cost for a private Bdote trip is $5800. For organizations that move forward with scheduling a Bdote trip, MHC will draft a contract. A deposit of $1800 will be made upon signing the contract; the remaining $4000 will be due within two weeks following the experience.

Please contact Eden Bart with questions.
eden@mnhum.org | 651.772.4261

mnhum.org/program/learning-from-place-bdote

BDOTE TRIPS INCLUDE:

- Up to 50 participants for a six-hour day, typically from 8:30am–2:30pm. A shorter customized route can be arranged, although the cost remains the same.
- Two Dakota community scholars throughout the day.
- Dakota singing and drumming.
- A tour guide audio system is used throughout the day to enhance hearing accessibility and an opportunity for participants to listen in solitude while overlooking Bdote.
- A follow up email to be shared with participants that includes multiple resources to extend the learning.
- A report of participant survey responses and complimentary action plan consultation.
- Unlimited admission to Beyond Bdote virtual workshop.

Transportation and lunch are not included; however, we are happy to suggest options.

Minnesota
Humanities
Center

mnhum.org