Minnesota Humanities Center Educational Programs: The humanities help us understand ourselves, our communities, and our histories. By increasing collective understanding, we can spark positive change and create a more just society.MHC curates stories, co-creates engagement opportunities, increases knowledge, and produces resources in the areas of education, civic renewal, immersive experiences, and public programming to catalyze ideas. Their grantmaking enables them to strengthen the bonds between us, celebrate our past and traditions, tap into the best within ourselves, and educate the next generation of leaders. For fiscal year 2025, MHC curated over 145 programs with over 17,000 attendees. MHC provides programming across the state, including the Sketches of Minnesota program, as well as educational programs with local schools. In addition, we observed our history and how intertwined it is with our present with programs around Juneteenth and Bdote. We also celebrated the people that make up Minnesota, sharing stories from our veterans, women, and the cultures that make up Minnesota and its history. In addition, our organization granted over 16 million dollars over the biennium.

Event Center: In addition to its Educational programming, MHC operates a full-service event center, as created by the State Legislature in 1996. In addition to housing programs of MHC, this restored architectural landmark serves educators, social service providers, other nonprofits, state colleges and universities, and state agencies and community groups seeking to improve both their individual work and the quality of life for all Minnesotans, by providing high quality, cost effective meeting and event space for educational and public programs, and staff education and development. MHC held over 270 events at the event center with over 10,000 people in the facility, with around 80% of those events related to the organization's mission.

Part IV Supplemental Information. Provide the information required in Part I, line 2; Part III, column (b); and any other additional information.

Return Reference	Explanation
Part I, Line 2:	For grants of $50k or more, the Organization requires a monitor visit to be conducted by MHC Finance and the Grant Administrative Staff, which includes a financial review.
Part III:	The Legacy Fund Grants are determined with a public RFP and application process screened initially by MHC staff to verify the basic requirements, followed by review by an independent panel scoring the applications. MHC then determines the final list based on the recommendation from the panel.

Return Reference	Explanation
Form 990, Part VI, Section B, line 11b	The Finance Committee receives copies and reviews the entire 990; it is also reviewed by the Chief Operating Officer and the CEO. A copy of the public version is sent electronically to each board member.
Form 990, Part VI, Section B, line 12c	Requirements are reviewed with all incoming board members, and then annually with full board. If there are conflicts, the board member recuses themselves from the discussion and vote.
Form 990, Part VI, Section B, line 15	Compensation for the CEO is set by the Executive Committee of the board. They compare compensation with publically available information for similar positions, either through salary surveys or through review of 990's for other nonprofits. Compensation is reviewed annually for all staff. Market comparisons are done formally on a periodic basis; published market surveys are reviewed annually and ranges adjusted as MHC leadership determines appropriate. Individual compensation is recommended by direct supervisor, COO, and approved by the CEO. The CEO reviews and approves all compensation adjustments for the leadership team. Staff adjustments for all staff are based on job responsibilities, performance, and comp analysis. The board Executive Committee's review and approve the annual salary pool, prior to the approval of the full budget by the board.
Form 990, Part VI, Section C, line 19	These documents are provided upon request and on our website.
